Debbie,
 This is our last year and let's make the best of it. We had some good times last year so let's try for some even better ones this year.
 Let's get that partying started up again because this ought to be a year we never forget.
 Debbie, you've got a lot going for you and I wish you the best of luck.
 Stay sweet.

Your friend,
 Suzanne

-Debbie-

Crownover,
 What's happening?
 I hope this year is of great parties and exciting don't miss a bad dream! All I can say is let's try and have fun. You keep cool!
 Love + laughter,
 Jay

Amidst
 my high school rooms of blackboards and old chalk erasers, of kids in jeans and t-shirts,
 of Shakespear,
 and other familiar things, you will find someone growing in knowledge.

Old beat up textbooks, scarred desks where pens have scratched out of boredom and tradition, a quiet listening takes the place of noisy confusion.

Perhaps it will be noticed in the atmosphere,
 An aura of strained tenseness,
 A bomb ready to explode at the precise time You tell me, "The radius is equal to the diameter."
 Perhaps it will not be noticed at all Until I stand on the peak and say,
 "I understand."

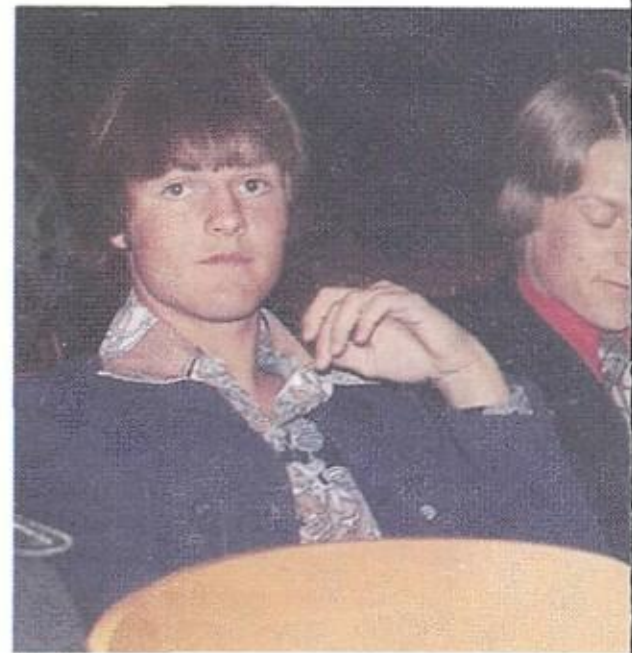

So sad!

Student Life

. . . Your children are not your children.

They are the sons and daughters of life's longing for itself.

They came through you but not from you.

Debbie -
Well looks like we have one more year in this place so lets try and make the most of it. We've shared some pretty good times in the past and I hope we can start doing that again.
Be sweet and patient and maybe we'll survive.
Love,
Brenda

And though they are with you yet they belong
not to you.

You may give them your love but not your thoughts.
For they have their own thoughts.

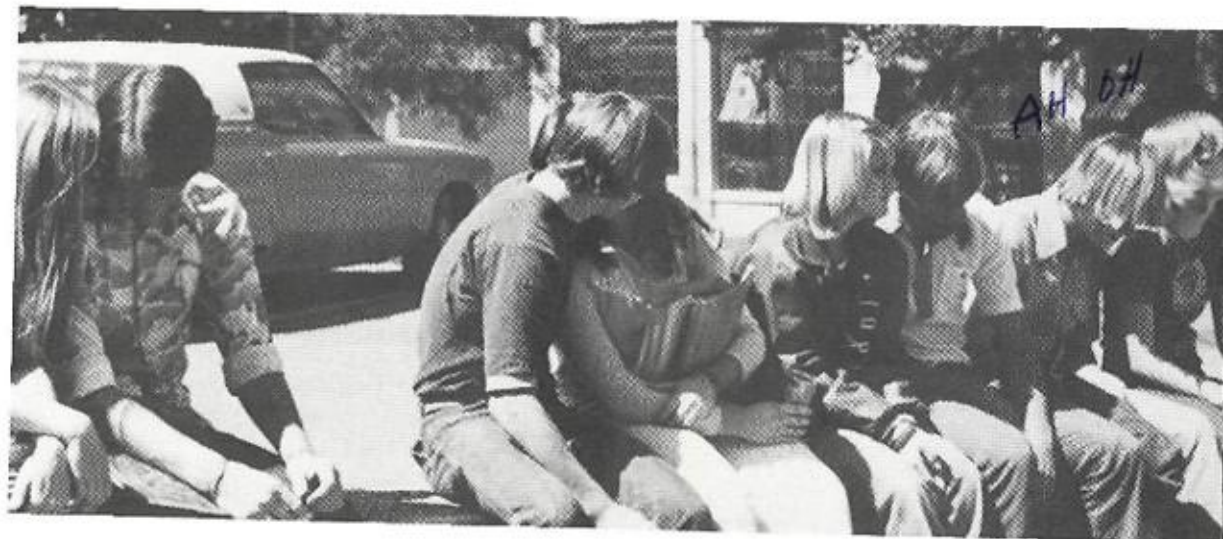

You may house their bodies but not their souls, for their souls dwell in the house of tomorrow which you cannot visit, even in your dreams.

Oh God!

You may strive to be like them,
but seek not to make them
like you.

For life
goes not backward nor tarries
with yesterday.

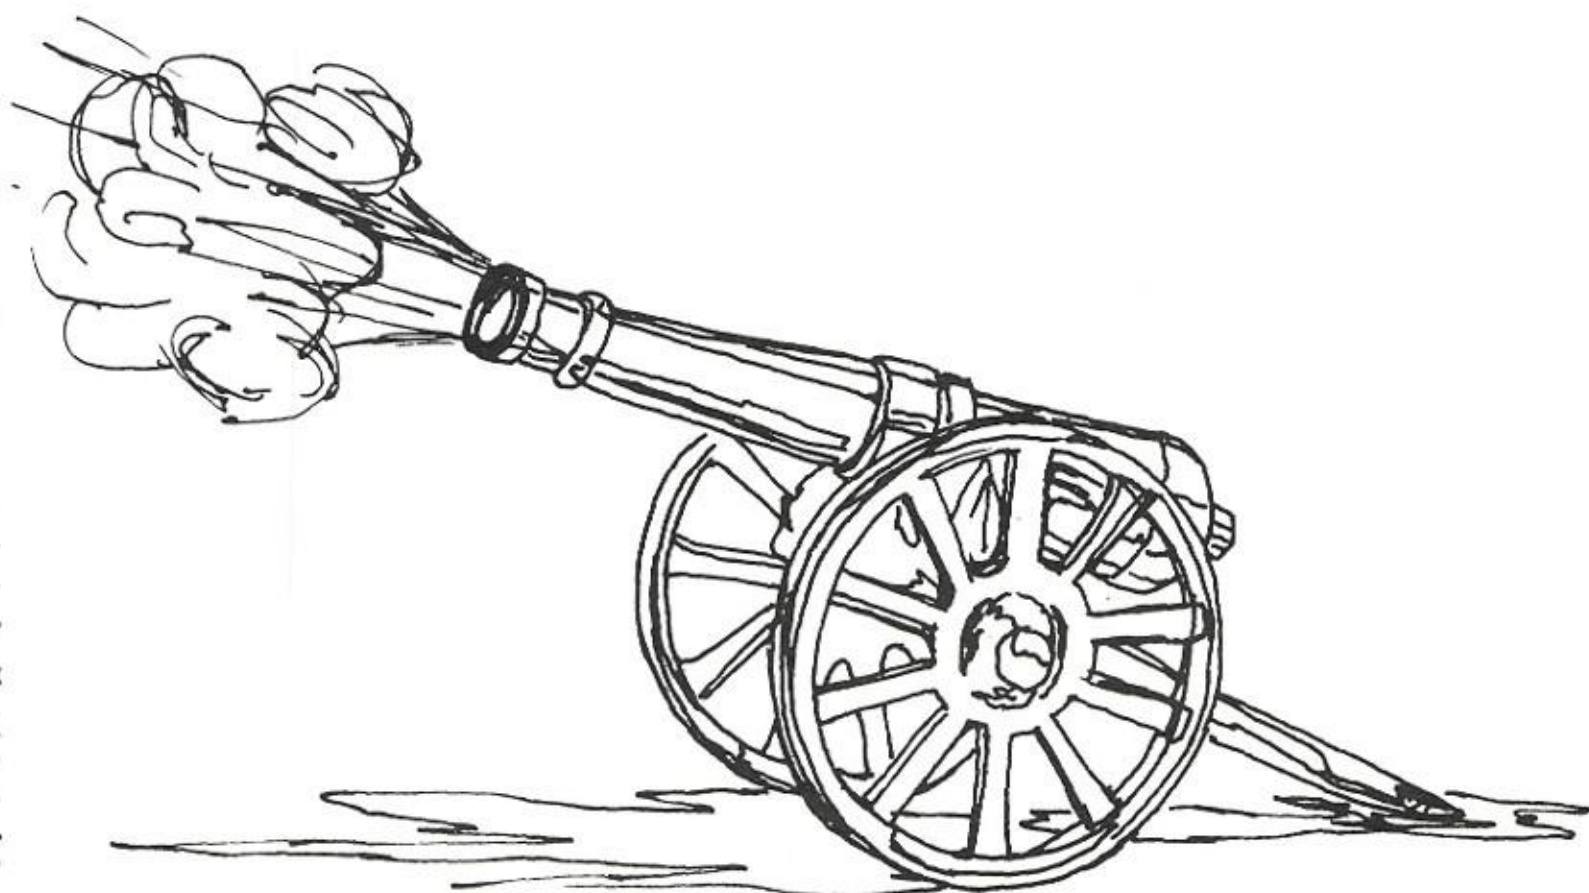

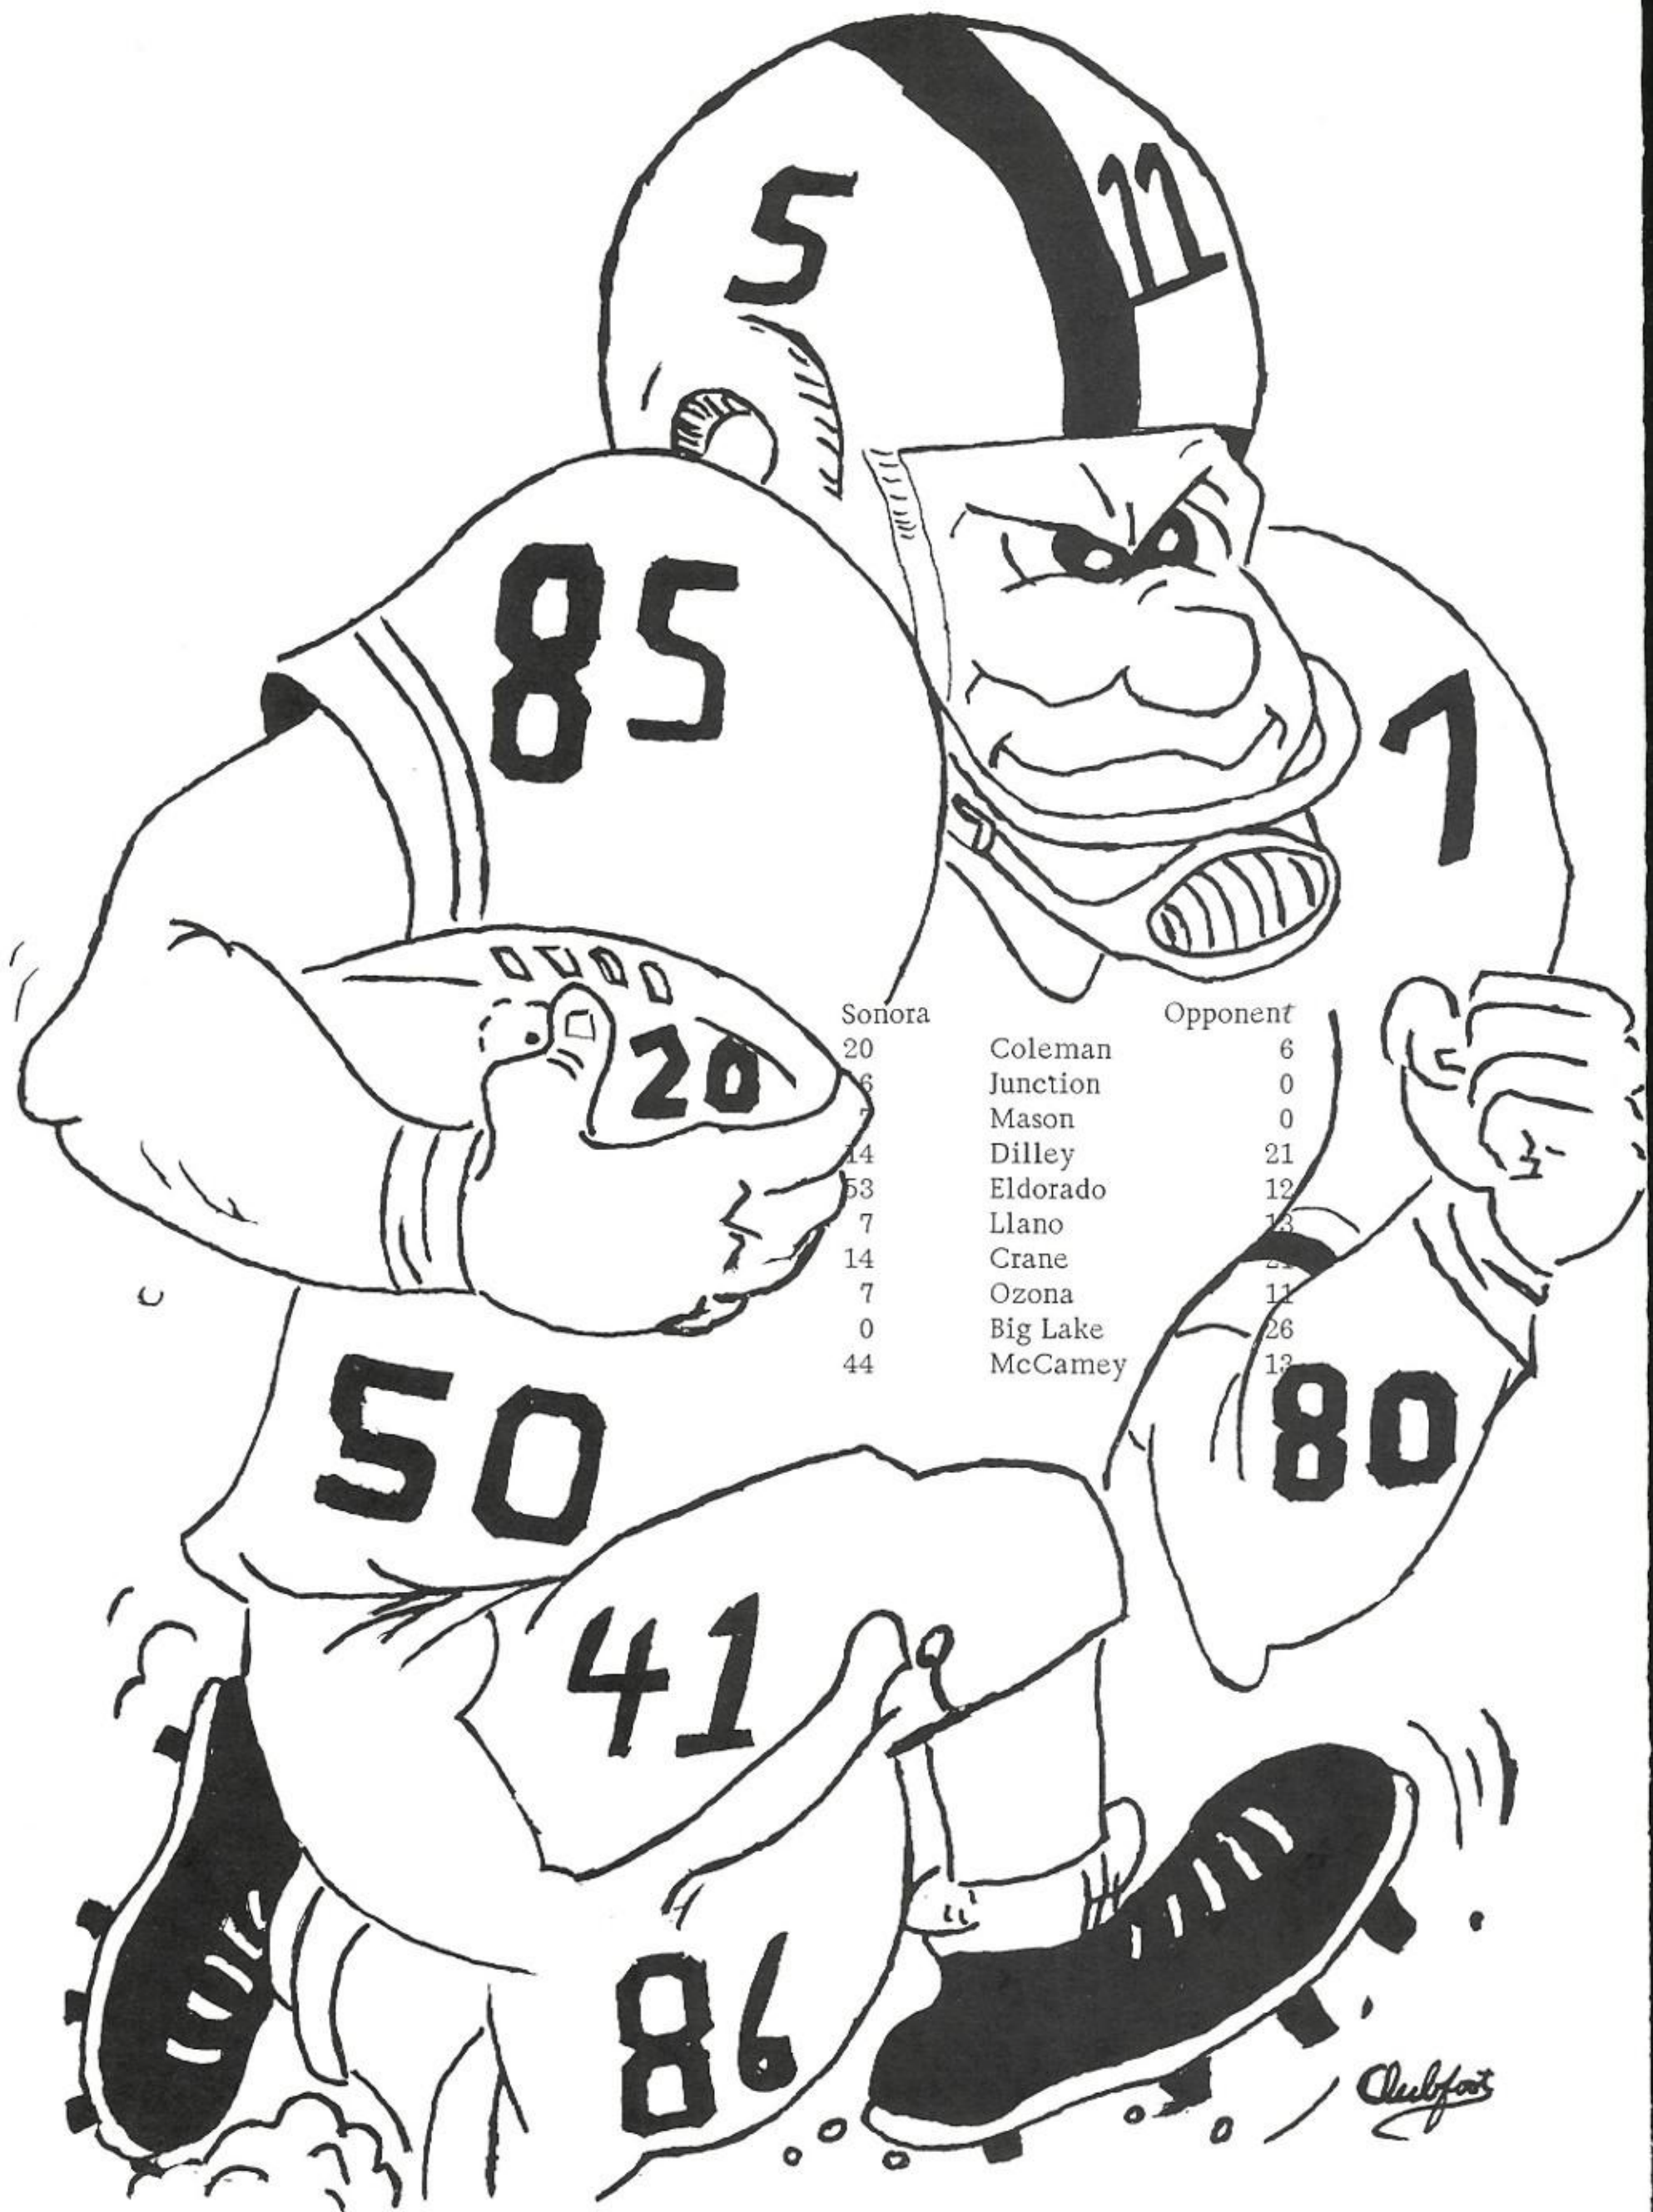

Debbie —

Looks as if we are in for a great year as far as partying may go, but we still have to drag thru school. Guess we'll just have to make the best of things, and have plenty good times.

Love,
Bo

Varsity Football

Exploding with power, the "red machine" ran through the goal posts many times. Playing against creditable teams, the Broncos scored 165 points with the offense passing for 595 yards and the defense rushing for 2113 yards.

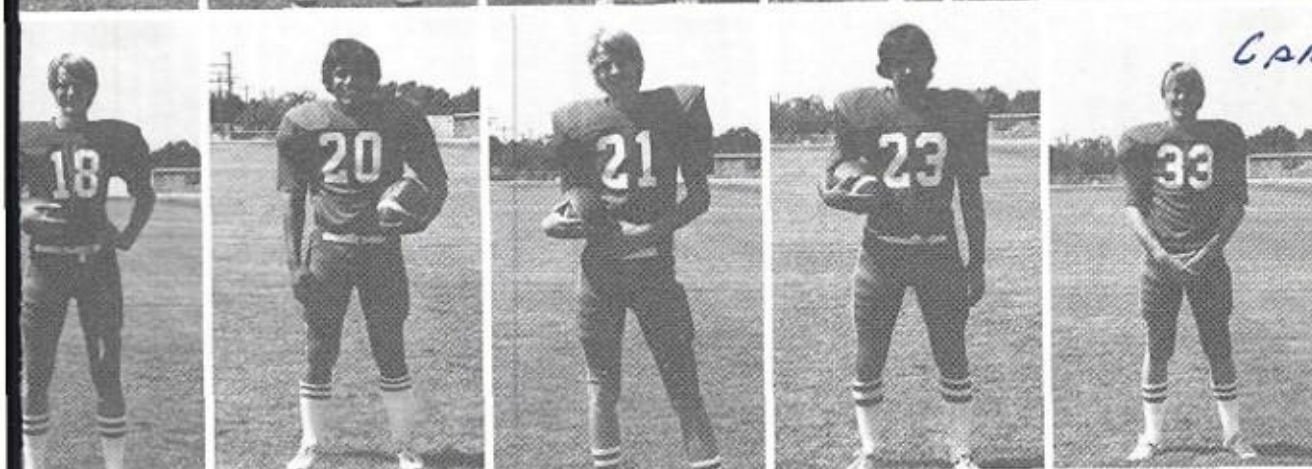

It took more than just dedicated players to make a team as great as the Broncos. Head Coach Bill Bundy and Coaches Roland Pfeiffer and Tommy Miller trained the team in football techniques. Managers Tommy Mounce and Steve Alley spent many hours taking care of equipment, cleaning the field house, and supplying team members with welcomed refreshment.

Organizations

Each new member of the year-book staff discovered the hard work involved in the preparation of the Bronco. Selling ads, deciding on the layout and the design of the year-book, and rushing to meet deadlines were tasks of every staff member. Editor Janna Lawson and assistant editor Suzanne Dillard aided the staff in capturing the events of the year.

Yearbook Staff

Student Council

The Student Council, the students' form of government within the school, played an important role on our campus. Through this organization, elected representatives of the classes and clubs were able to voice their opinions about matters concerning the student body. The Student Council sponsored the Halloween Carnival, collected toys and food for families in the community, and gave the All-School Dance. President Will Wallace presided at the council meetings and assemblies of the student body. Other officers were Vice-President, Tony Mathews, Secretary, Mary Sue Galindo. Mr. Bob Snodgrass was the organization's sponsor.

National Honor Society

"I pledge myself to uphold the high purposes of the National Honor Society to which I have been elected; I will be true to the principles for which it stands; I will be loyal at all times to my school, and will maintain and encourage high standards of Scholarship, Character, Leadership, and Service."

The NHS held their annual Walk-A-Thon for Retarded Citizens on May 1. A total of $1,887.45 was collected in pledges from the 30 students who participated in this event. Officers of the NHS were President, Larry Finklea; Vice-President, Martha Elliott; Secretary, Marsha Finklea; and Treasurer, Cindy Favila.

Future Homemakers Of America

As usual, FHA was one of the most active organizations on campus. Their many projects for the year included a booth at the Halloween Carnival, a remodeling of the girls' lounge, and a Christmas caroling party.

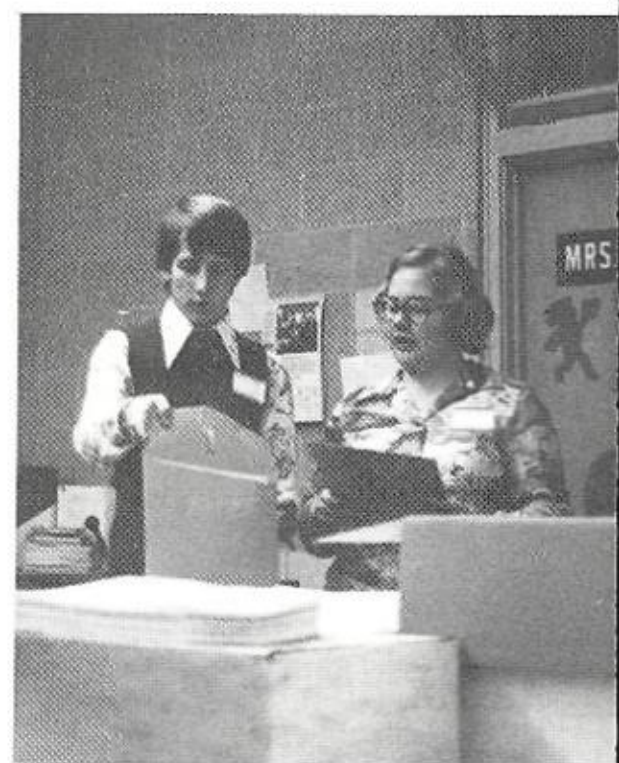

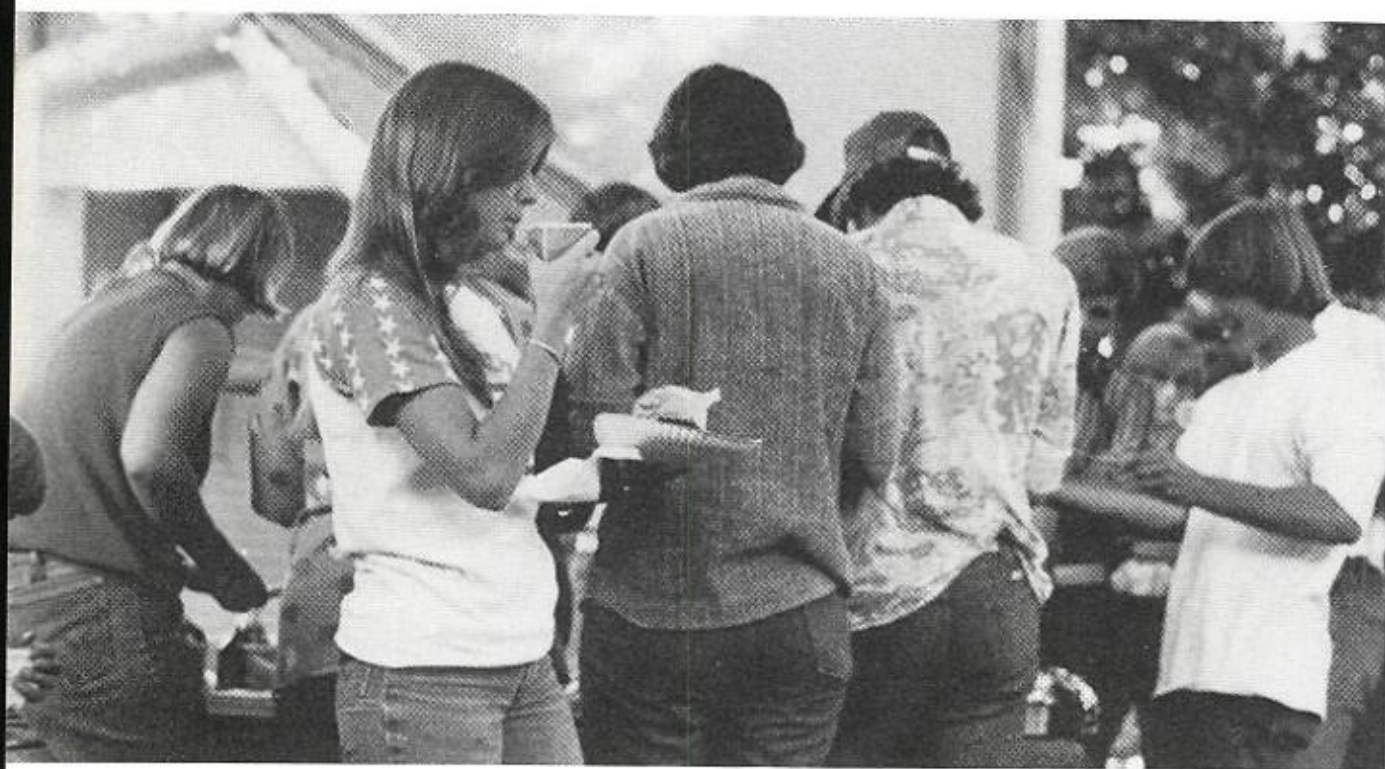

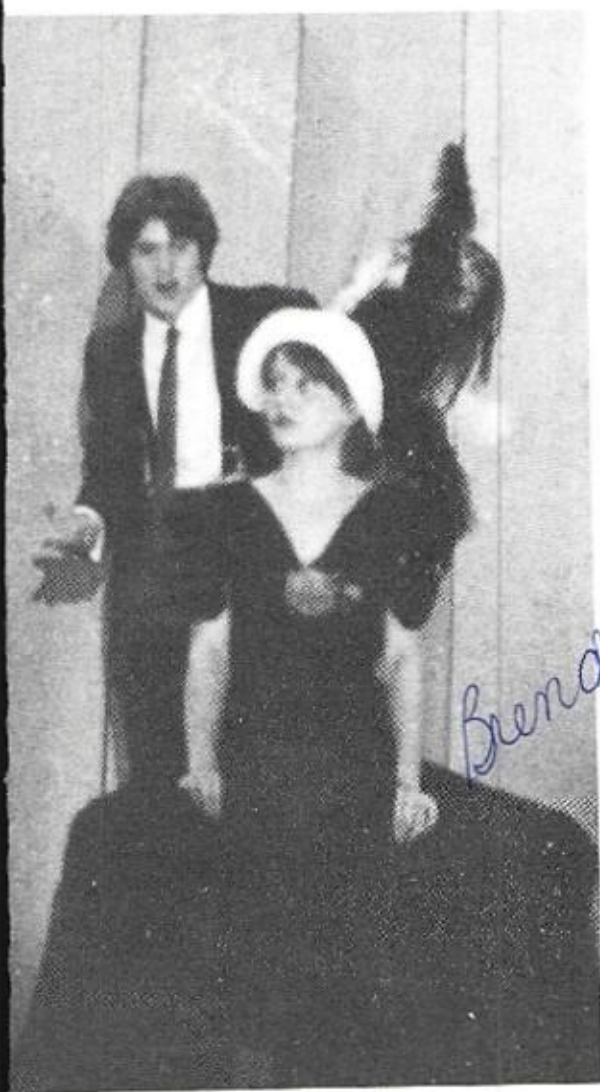

Several members, accompanied by sponsor Mrs. Celeste Prugel, attended the Area II Meeting in Odessa. The group presented a skit on the California Gold Rush and Natalie Redman and Susan Dunnam sang in the choir. At the installation tea held in late spring, incoming officers and the mothers of FHA members were honored. Senior members were also presented gifts at this time. Margie Gutierrez was recognized as FHA Sweetheart and Mario Duran was honored as FHA Beau. For the first time, a Sonora Student held an area office with Mary Sue Galindo serving as Area Fourth Vice-President. Local officers were President, Margie Gutierrez; Vice-President, Cindy Favila; Secretary, Joyce Noriega; Treasurer, Lesa Gonzales; Parliamentarian, Viola Mendez; Games Chairman, Mary Sue Galindo; and Historian, Susana Noriega.

 Scott Speech Club

The Speech Club, consisting of 74 members, presented their annual talent show at Halloween and also sponsored the Sonora Speech Tournament. The Tournament, with 24 schools participating, was a tremendous success. Central High School of San Angelo took the Sweepstakes Trophy. Other activities of the Speech Club included a hamburger supper at the home of speech director Edwina Braden and a formal banquet given at the Sutton County Steak house. Officers were President, Mike Street; Vice-President, Scott Alley; Secretary, Janna Lawson; and Reporter, Lorie Olson.

Sonora High School's speech and drama students produced "The Enchanted" by Jean Giraudoux as their one-act play which was presented at district competition in Big Lake. The fifteen cast members and director Edwina Braden worked long hours to perfect their performance. Crew members Mike Street, Suzanne Dillard and Gary Wuest contributed greatly by working lights, collecting props and making sure all things were present and in working order. At district competition Becky Ponsetti, John Mormon, and Robert Mounce received positions on the All-Star Cast. Toyah Jones, Lianna Mandy and Craig Hudson received honorable mention for their performances.

Fellowship of Christian Athletes

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes gave both girl and boy athletes an opportunity to grow closer to God. Their motto, "I Am Third," means "Christ is first, my fellowman is second, and I am third." Coach Bill Bundy was sponsor of the organization. Officers were Captain, John Elliott; Captain Elect, David Snodgrass; and Secretary-Treasurer, Jane Wallace.

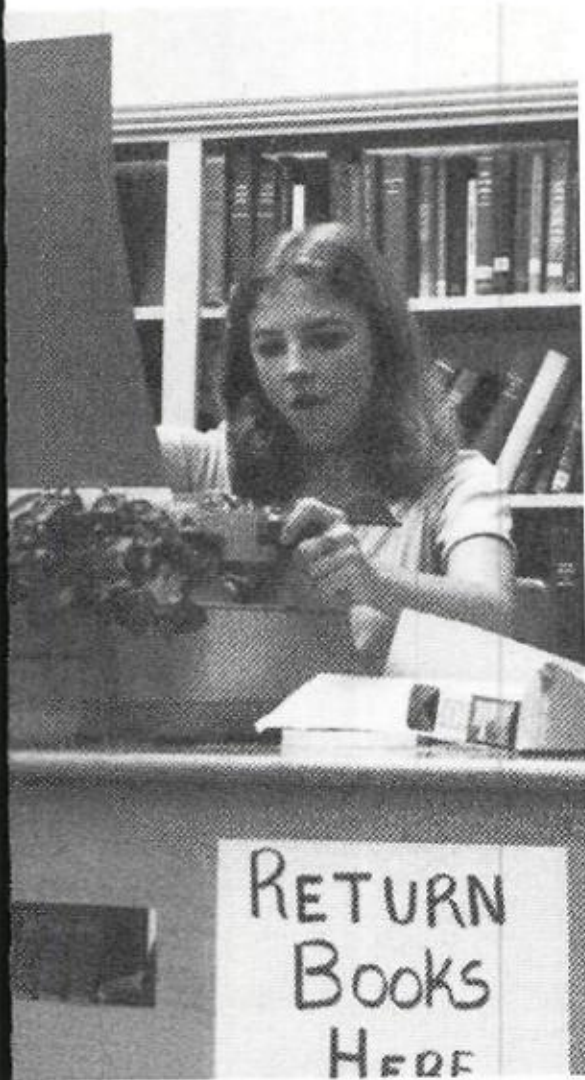

Industrial Arts

Under the sponsorship of Coach Oliver Wuest, the members of the Industrial Arts Club are provided with opportunities for gaining experience in personal leadership and for developing interest in industrial arts, engineering, and vocational education. For the first time, several girls joined the male members in their activities. Members of the board who directed the club activities were Tony Mathews, Gregg Parker, Jimmy Black, John David Cook, and Kelly Estep.

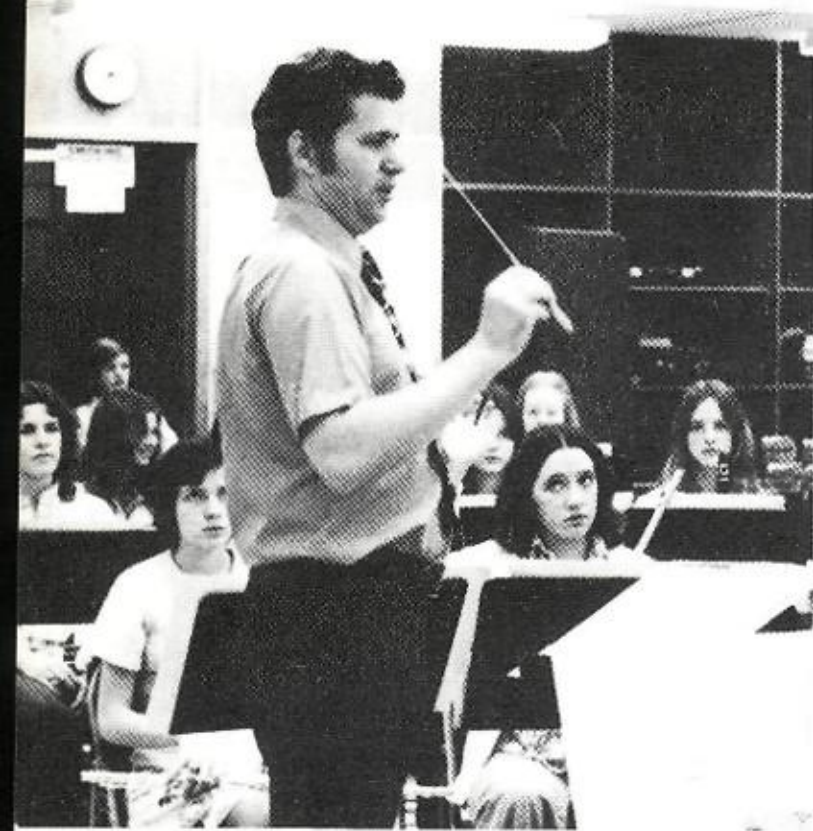

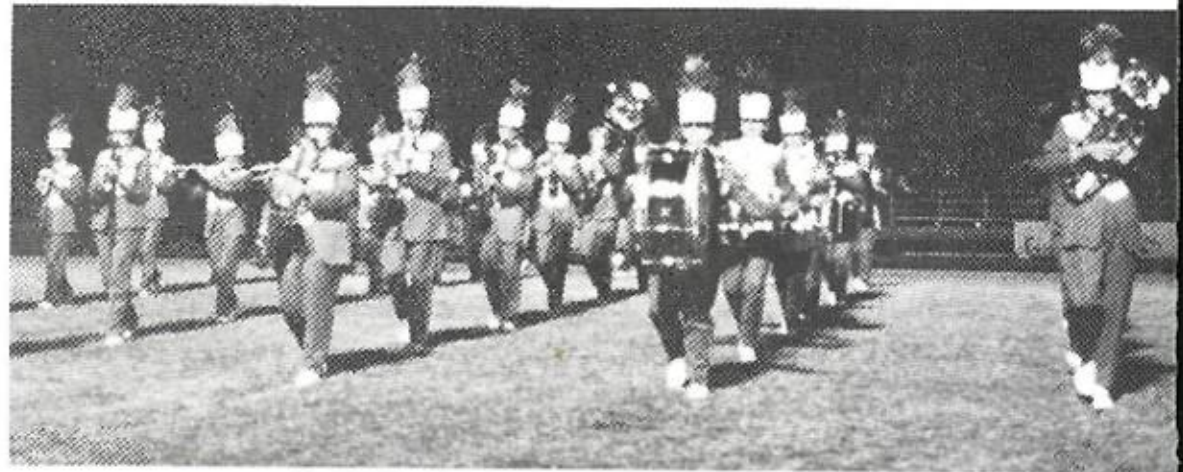

Newspaper Staff

This year the newspaper underwent some major changes. The name was changed to Caballo Diablo, which means "devilish horse." A dedication and gossip section were fun to read and increased student interest. The new sponsor, Miss Karen Beauchamp, had many other ideas which were put into action by editor Lorie Olson and her staff. Typists working hard to make sure the paper came out on time were Paula Monroe, Toyah Jones, and Suzanne Dillard. Artists Tom Valliant and Will Wallace designed many attractive covers.

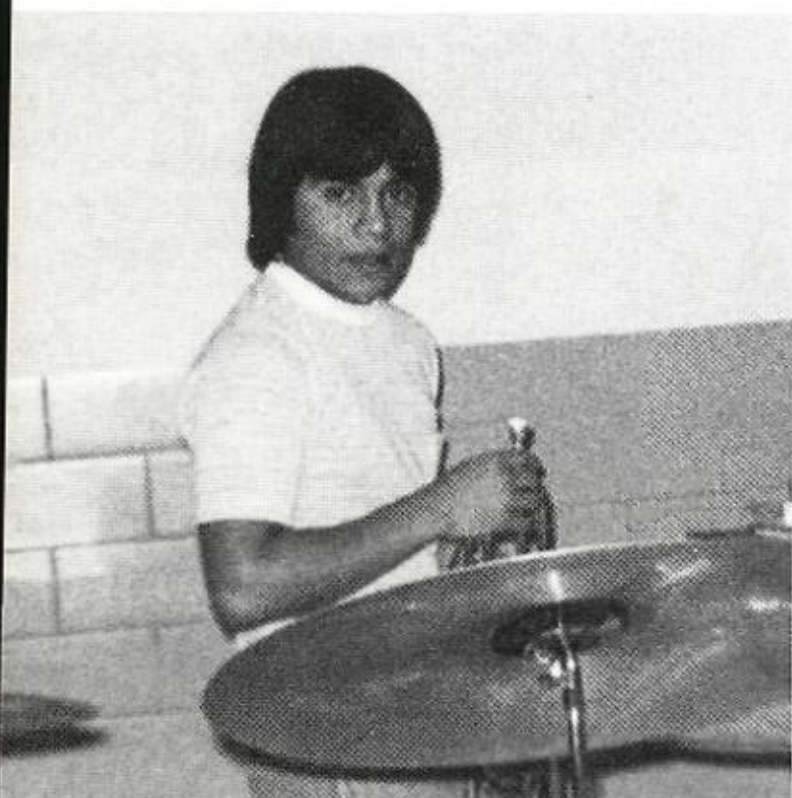

The blazing red and brilliant white uniforms of the Bronco band displayed school spirit at football games, concerts, and contests. In the fall, Jane Wallace was crowned Band Sweetheart at football half-time activities. The band competed in UIL marching and sight reading contests in November and presented the annual Christmas concert in December.

Bronco Band

In the spring, band members competed in UIL solo and ensemble competition. Scott Alley, Donna Schaffner, Terri Simpler, Stephen Terry, and Gary Wuest earned membership in the All-Regional Band. During the Spring Concert, several band members were recognized by Mr. Don Paul, band director. Donna Schaffner was cited as Honor Band Student and Rebecca Sisk received the Band Citizenship Award. The John Philip Sousa Award was presented to Denita Mobley. Gary Wuest, who served the band as drum major, received the Spirit Award.

Twirlers

The twirlers for the Bronco band were Joyce Noriega, Jane Wallace, Flaire Lane, Becky Cavaness, and head twirler Lucy Morriss. After long hours of practicing routines, the twirlers proudly led the band down the field and performed special shows for the Bronco fans.

The Girls' Athletic Association, sponsored by Mrs. Gwen Kordzik, was busy putting up signs and making locker stickers during football season. Members sold football programs and sponsored the cake walk at the Halloween Carnival to raise money to send the cheerleaders to camp. As a special project, the club collected Betty Crocker coupons to buy plates to be used at different school events. Officers were President, Martha Elliott; Vice-President, Bernice Street; and Secretary-Treasurer, Terri Simpler.

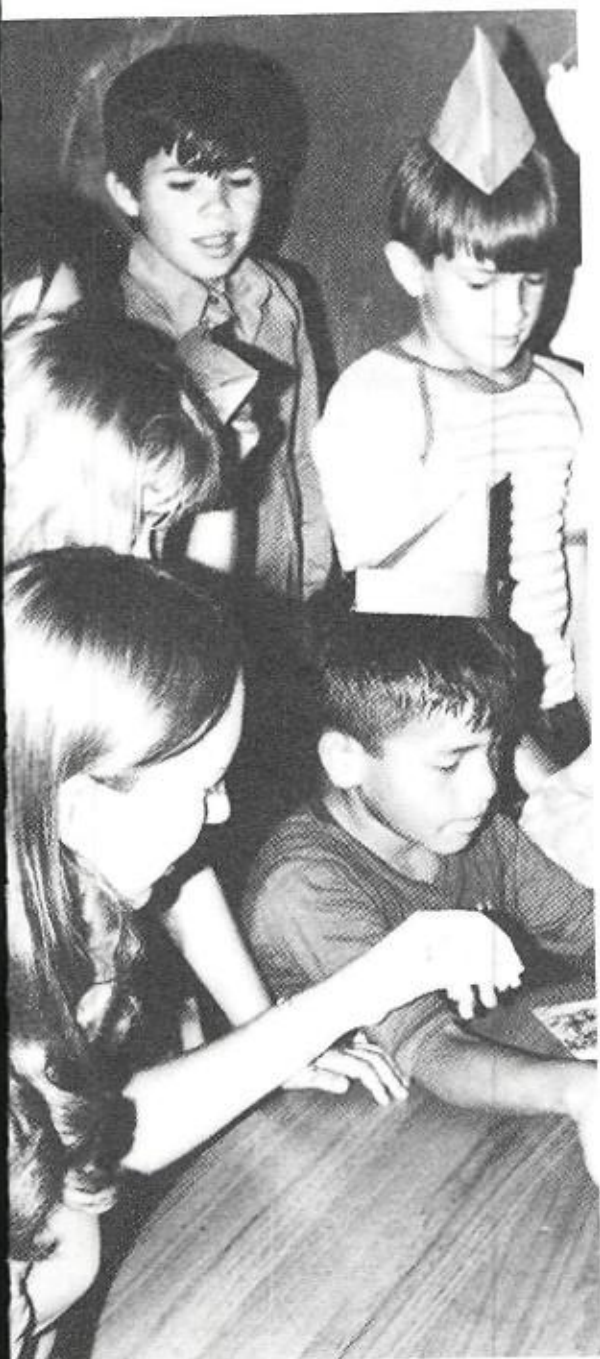

Girls' Athletic Association

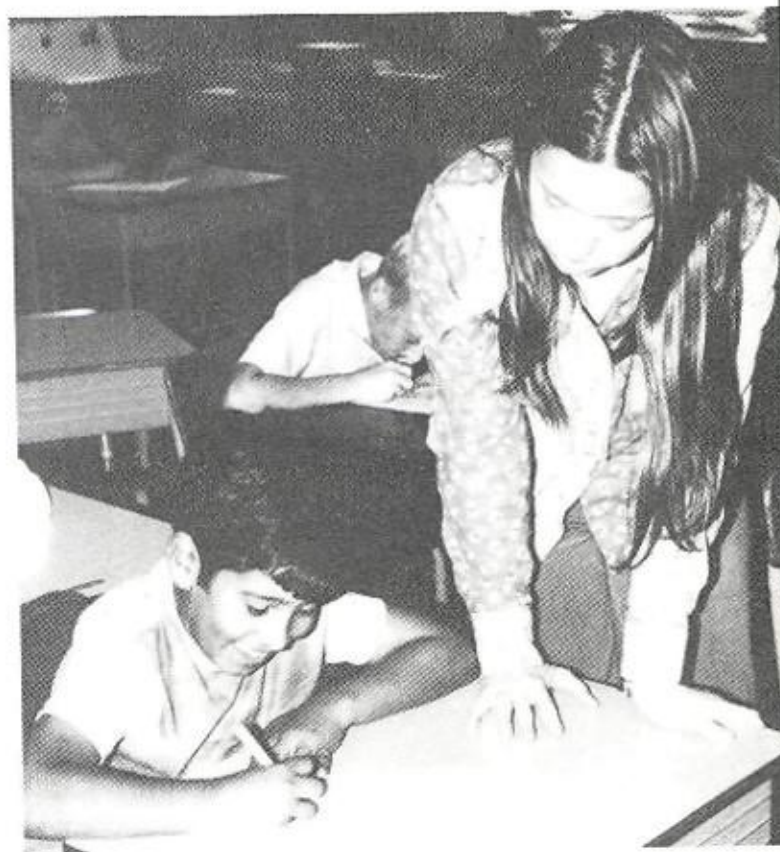

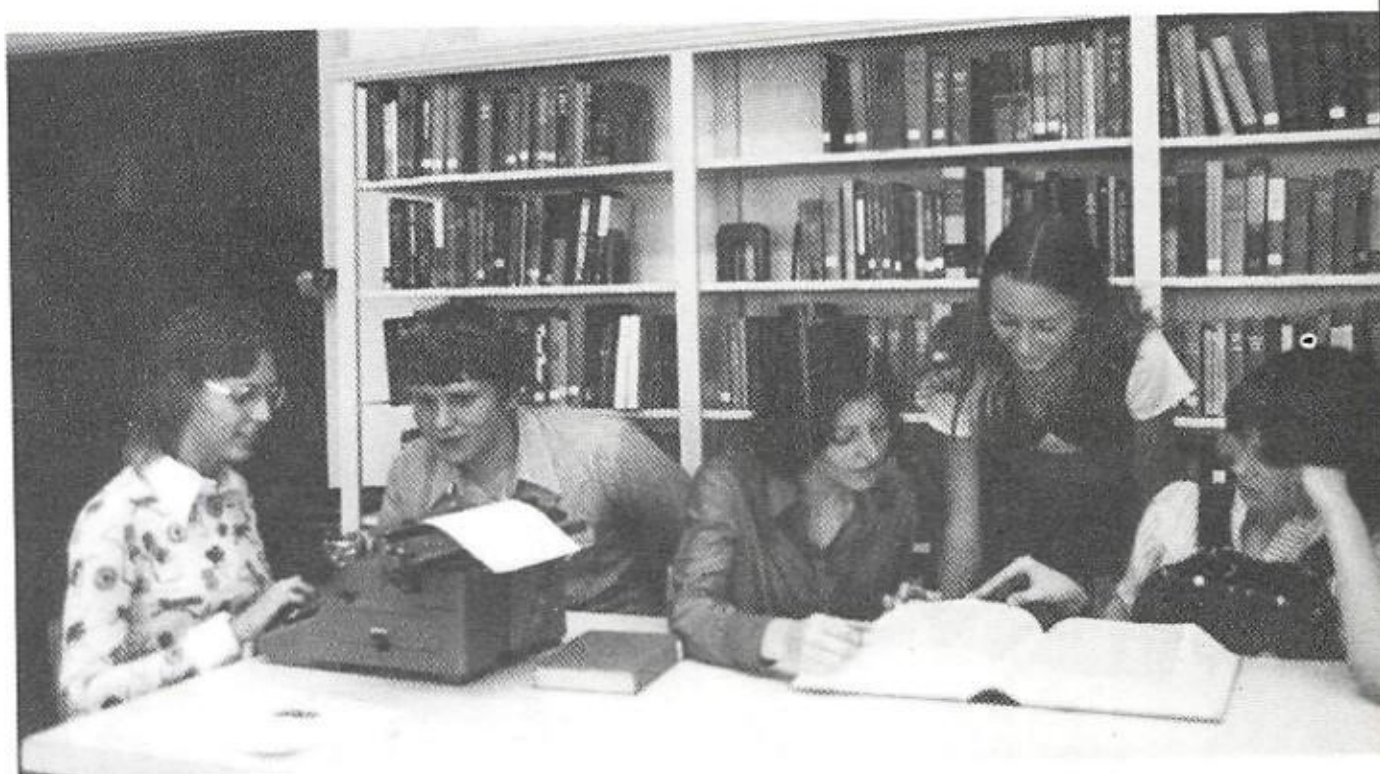

Future Teachers of America

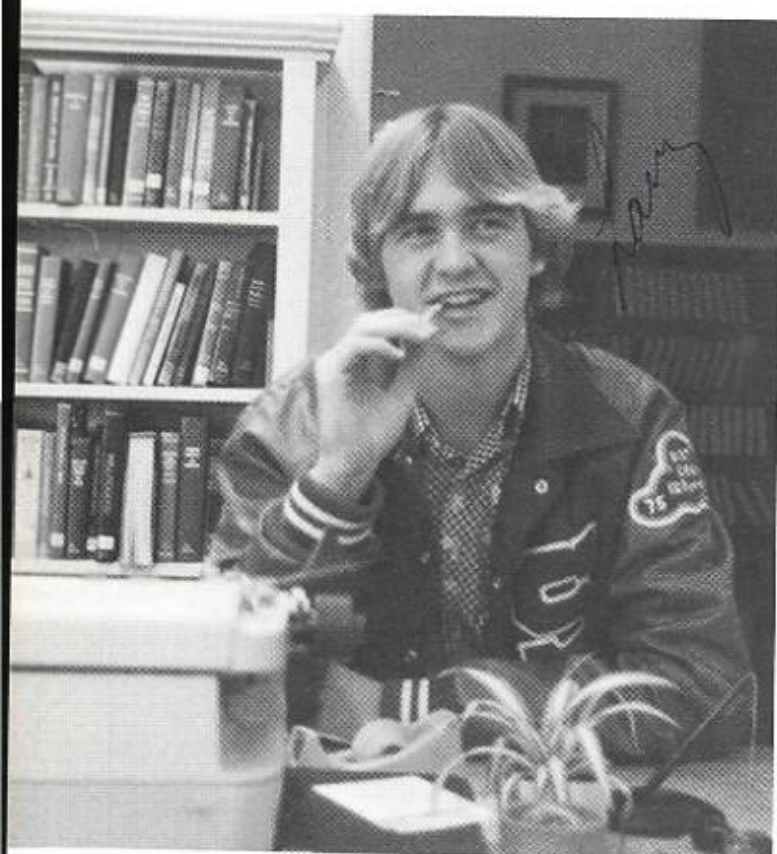

The FTA, an organization that helps prepare students to work with others as teachers, contributed a valuable service to the elementary faculty. Members of the organization worked as teacher assistants, helping students with school subjects and aiding teachers in grading papers and in doing other daily tasks. Officers were President, Lorie Olson; Vice-President, Gary Wuest; Secretary, Janie Welch; Parliamentarian-Historian, Jo Hanus; and Treasurer, Becky Ponsetti. Mrs. Charlotte Wilson sponsored the organization.

Library Assistants

The library assistants were busy during the year maintaining library records, checking out books, and keeping magazines ready for student use. These students also helped Miss Karen Beauchamp organize and operate the library's newest service-- audio visual equipment and materials.

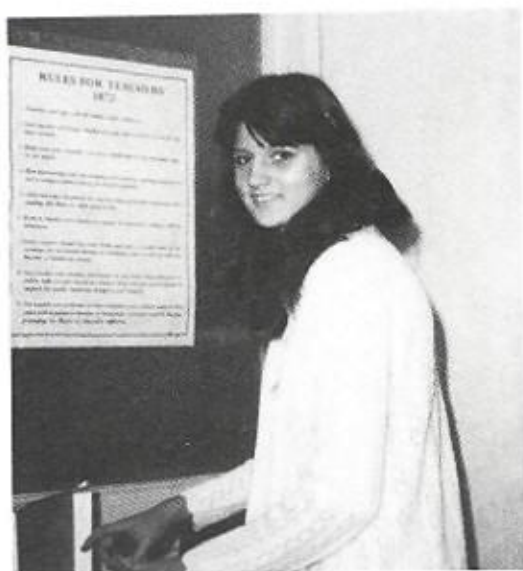

Office & Counselor's Assistants

Handwritten note: 1
Jano

The office assistants stayed busy throughout the year keeping school files and absentee records in order. With the increased enrollment, they were a big help to the secretary, Mrs. Wanda Cook. The counselor's assistants were a new addition to the school. They helped Mrs. Jeryl Fields provide information for students interested in continuing their education.

Distributive Education Clubs Of America

DECA, a new and active organization on campus, provided its members with opportunities for working in the community and for learning about the responsibilities of being an employee. Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom

The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom, held on March 5, was enjoyed by both students and teachers. The traditional will and prophecy, a Three Stooges movie, and the decorative old-movie theme helped to make the banquet and dance a complete success.

"I now crown you Tinkerbell!"

"Who can I cut down next."

"Aw, shucks. I don't really look like Robert Redford!"

"How's YOUR love life."

"I wonder if she knows how to do the Bunny Hop."

Like teacher-like student!

Senior Activities

The Class of 1976 seemed to believe in the motto, "Work Hard, Play Hard." After a busy year of magazine sales, the Halloween Carnival concession booth, government class, and English IV, they were ready to have some fun. On May 21, thirty-four seniors and four sponsors traveled to New Braunfels for a day of swimming, boating, and six-foot long sandwiches. Other activities at the end of the school year included several parties, honoring the seniors, a friendly game of baseball, and a swimming day in Christoval.

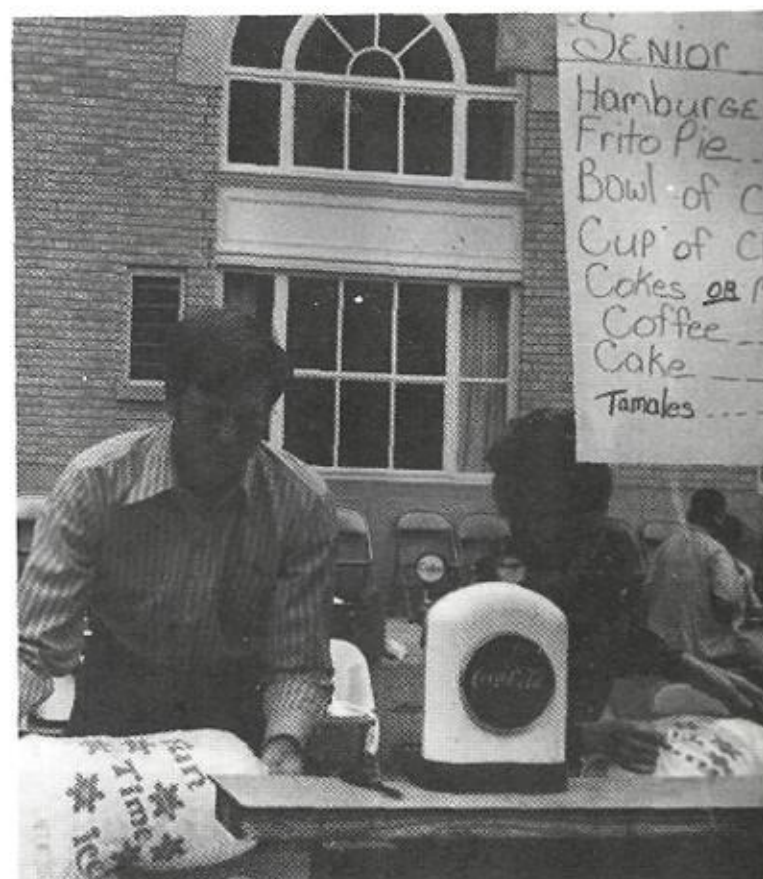

"You did say this was coke, didn't you?"

"O.K., Sweathogs, this is a serious game!"

"Male chauvinists! They told us we could be on the team!"

"Let's see. We have 5 bags of ice, 27 hamburgers, and 449 mouths to feed!"

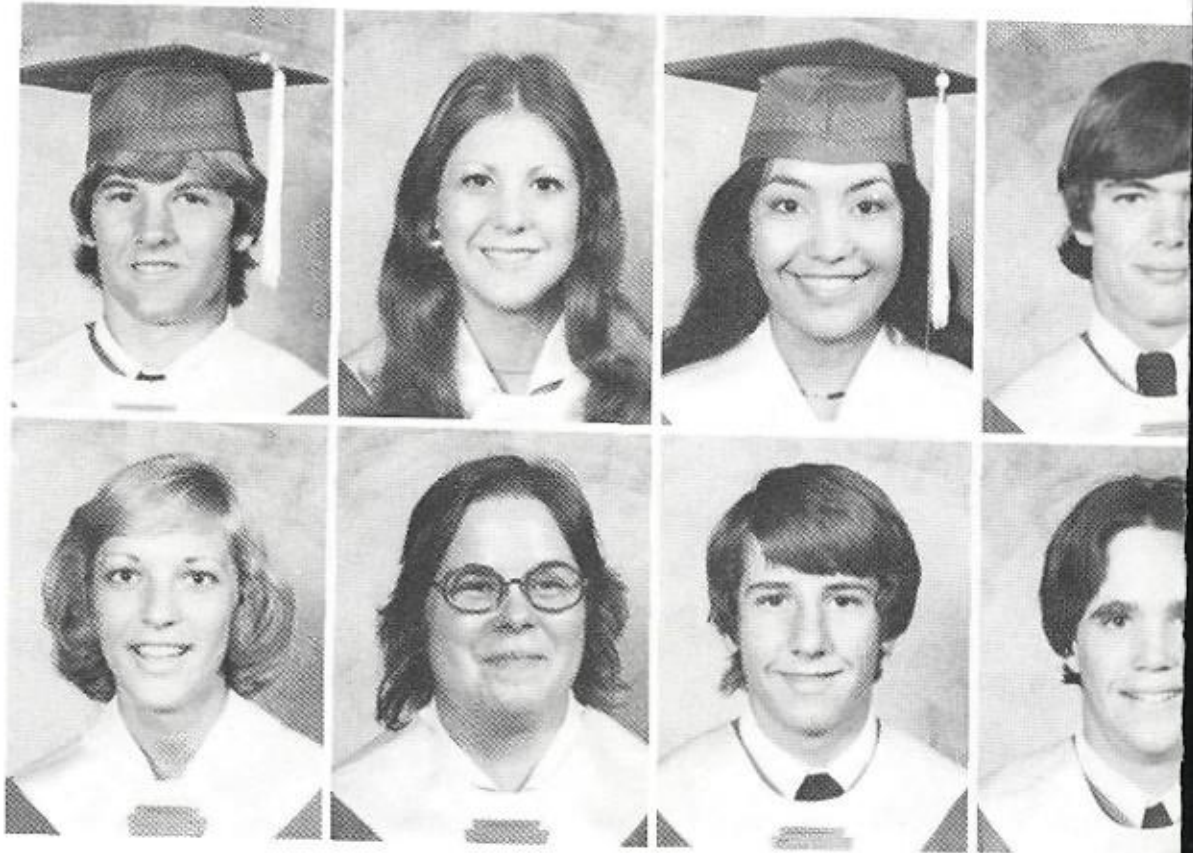

"Oh, SLACK!"

Deb-
Well here we are - another year but this year is going to be fun, (probably not) ~~well~~ We've had lots of good times and have made lots of fond memories that I will never forget. I'm so glad that this is going to be our last year; things ~~can't~~ are going to get better from now on. Before long we'll be going to college chasing wild men, partying and trying to pass. Seriously, you are one of the best friends I've ever had and you've made me feel better lots of times when I've been depressed. You've really helped me ~~and~~ and I appreciate it.
If you ever need a friend, always remember I will be close and I will do anything I can to help. Stay cool - Always

The auxiliary personnel contributed greatly to the operation of our school system. Mr. Carroll King, tax assessor-collector and business manager, was assisted by Miss Vivian Miears and Mrs. Rita Tomlin in maintaining an efficient business office. Mrs. Annabel Wuest, school nurse, was always ready to tend to the first aid needs of all students. The secretaries so vital to our school's survival were Mrs. Wanda Cook, high school; Mrs. Jinx Taylor, junior high school; and Mrs. Rex Ann Friess, elementary school.

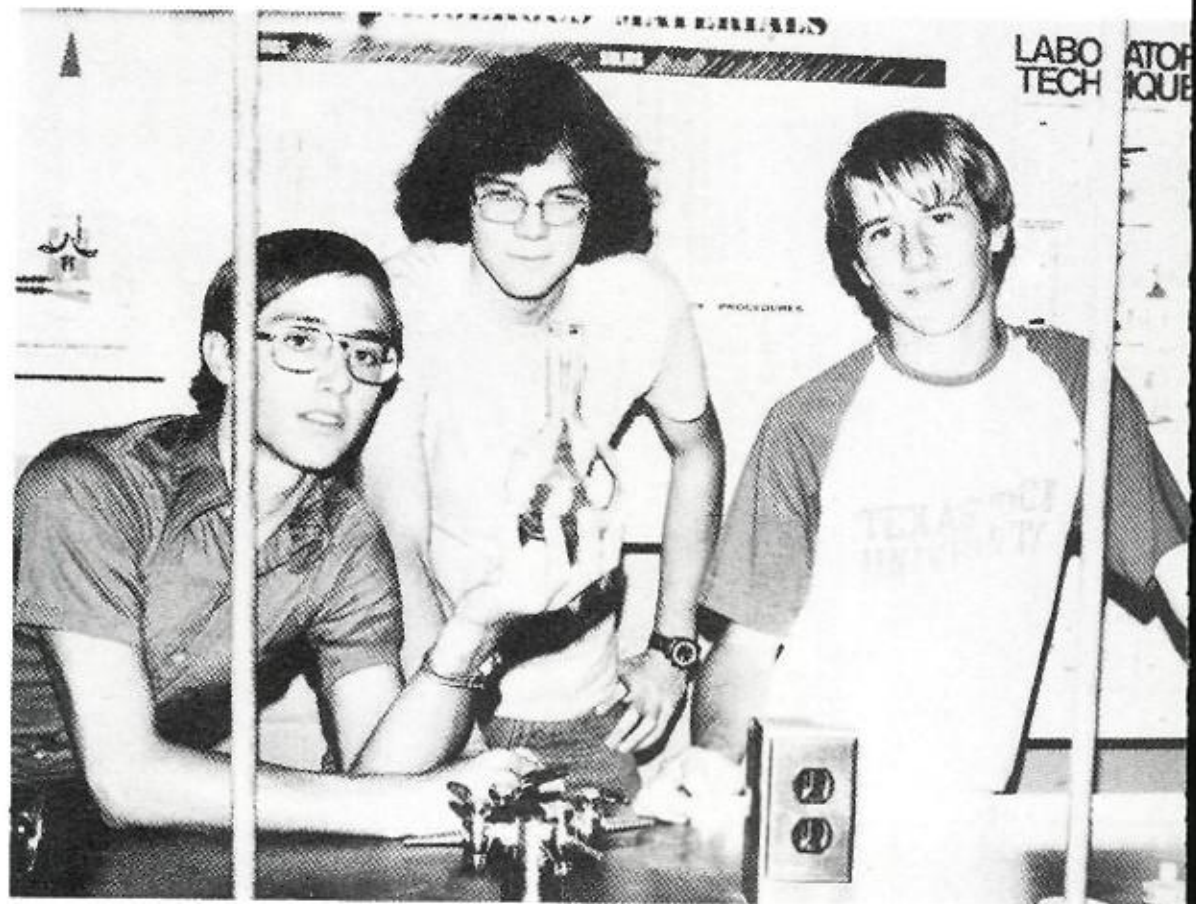

Under the supervision of Mrs. Patsy Schwiening, the cafeteria workers served the hungry students of Sonora. Mr. Max Hardegree, maintenance supervisor, and his crew worked hard to keep the buildings and equipment in good condition. The custodians, under the supervision of Mr. Edward Carrasco, kept the campus clean and neat. With the help of these people, our school was kept running smoothly throughout the year.

Debbie,
76-77: Graduation
Beer Bust(s), Senior Trip Parties, Hell-raising
So much like it's going to be an exciting year, provided we make it through Chemistry. Anyway, we've had a lot of good times and I know I'll cherish my high school years forever, and you have added a lot. It's always nice to look across the room and see your grinning face, to let me know that I'm not the only bewildered dummy in the class. You've been a true friend and a great asset to some pretty good times.

Love

That's ALL
FOLKS!

Debbie,

It appears to be the start of a long Dreery school year but just think it's our last one. I suppose we are going to have to make the best of it and raise a lot of hell no matter what happens.
This year's Sr. Beer Bust will be the best ever I guarantee!

Debbie stay sweet and be careful by all means because it's the only way not to get caught.
Stay Sweet,

Lovie

Debbie.

Well I finally made it just can't believe it I'm a senior. You really got a great personality Debbie.
You always talk to somebody over about somebody. ^{that's how} hope you ~~also~~ have a great year this year. Stay sweet and cool.

Love
Lovie

Debbie -
Hey, Hey how does it feel to be a b.g Senior.
It's hard to believe this is the last year. I can remember when you first got here. You didn't do a thing, but then the "B.g S" got to ya and your wild as hell.
I know I give ya a lot of hell, but you know how I kid around with people. I just want ya to know that you're really a great person. You always smiling whether you have something to smile about or not. And I bet you hold the record for the most "drugs" made in one rite. Just always stay sweet and remember you have at least one friend always.

Love ya
Carmy
